

WALK in WARREN'S PAWS

Let's think about how Warren felt in the story.

Then think about what we can do to show kindness.

BE KIND.
ALWAYS TELL
THE TRUTH.
FRIENDS LISTEN.

1

Warren delivers Leonard's pizza.

The wind blows the straw house down, and Leonard runs away thinking Warren did it.

How might Warren feel?

Circle his face.

Why do you think he feels that way? _____

2

Warren delivers Marcus's groceries.

The wooden house falls apart, and Marcus and Leonard run away from him again.

How might Warren feel now?

Circle his face.

What do you wish you could say to Warren? _____

3

Everyone learns the truth.

Curly explains what really happened. The pigs realize Warren was not trying to hurt anyone.

How might Warren feel now?

Circle his face.

What could the pigs say to Warren? _____

4

Warren has new friends!

Everyone is together. Warren shares his carrot cookies, and they drink lemonade and laugh.

How does Warren feel now?

Circle his face.

What helped Warren's feelings change? _____

Walk in Warren's Paws

Sometimes we think we know why someone did something—but we may not know the whole story.

What can you do when someone is being misunderstood?

LISTEN

Listen to hear the whole story.

ASK QUESTIONS

Ask kind questions to understand.

BE KIND

Be kind with your words and actions.

BE KIND. ALWAYS TELL THE TRUTH. FRIENDS LISTEN.
